Clemens Zeilinger - Piano
Verena Stourzh - Violin
Franz Ortner - Cello

Why van Beethoven? Beethoven stands for independence of mind, for revolutionary ideas, for music that reaches far beyond his own time. Beethoven was a lone wolf, but at the same time the central figure to begin new traditions of composing that influenced many of his successors.

Beethoven as a symbol of the three musicians' closeness to the works of Viennese Classic, but also as a visionary and the creator of a new mode of composition - this fits in with the main mission of the TrioVanBeethoven: the care of the classical trio works, but also the commissioning of new compositions or crossover projects.

In conjunction with the Scottish singers Lorna Anderson (soprano) and Jamie MacDougall (tenor), the TrioVanBeethoven places a focus on Beethoven's and Haydn's folksong arrangements in order to present this unique combination of classical music and folksong tradition to a broader public.

In its foundation year in 2011, the Trio held its debut at the renowned Festival Tage der Alten Musik in Herne (Germany). Since then, the ensemble has performed in many countries throughout Europe. They have given guest performances at the Vienna Konzerthaus, at the Brucknerfest Linz, the Festwochen Gmunden, the Haydn Festival Bruhl, in London (Kings Place), at the Pažaislis Music Festival in Lithuania, the Haydn Biennale in Mechelen, Belgium, the Festival Nuova Consonanza in Rome and the Festival Imago Sloveniae in Ljubljana. Since 2014, they are presenting a concert series in Upper Austria (Kremsegg Castle). Highlights in 2016 have been performances at the Wiener Konzerthaus and the Brucknerhaus Linz, where the Trio played Ludwig van Beethoven's Triple Concerto.

In 2017 the three musicians have been invited to perform a cycle of three concerts dedicated to Beethoven in the new „MuTh“ concert hall in Vienna. Among other duties, they will be guests at the Musikwochen Millstatt and the Allegro Vivo Festival. Concert tours will lead them to England, Slovakia and Iran.

On the CD market, the renowned label Gramola has brought out the ensemble's complete recording of Beethoven's piano trios, which has been awarded the Ö1 Pasticcio-Prize by Austrian Classical Radio.

Clemens Zeilinger, 2011/12 "Artist in Residence" at the Brucknerhaus Linz, counts among Austria's leading pianists. He was winner of the European Youth Music Competition in Antwerp and won awards at the European Chamber Music Competition in the Hague and at the Beethoven Competition in Vienna.

As soloist he performed with several renowned orchestras like the Orchestra of the Royal Academy in London, the Bruckner Orchestra in Linz, the Mozarteum Orchestra in Salzburg and the Lower Austrian Symphony. He gave concerts in many European countries, in the USA and Japan as well as in Korea, Morocco, Iran and Oman.

In 2008, Clemens Zeilinger played all of Beethoven's piano sonatas at the Brucknerhaus in Linz, 2010 he presented a series of Schubert's piano works at the same venue.

He teaches at the University of Music in Vienna and at the Anton-Bruckner University in Linz.

Verena Stourzh was a member of the Haydn Trio Eisenstadt from 1998 to its disbanding in 2010 and has an impressive record of numerous concert appearances in Austria and abroad: She has performed at the Konzerthaus and the Musikverein in Vienna, at the Haydn Festival in Eisenstadt (annual subscription concerts), at the Concertgebouw Amsterdam, Stadtcasino Basel, Louvre Auditorium Paris, Kings Place London, the Cheltenham Festival, Beethovenfest Bonn, Musikfestspiele Potsdam Sanssouci, Musikverein Zagreb, Festival EuroArt Prag, International Performing Arts Center Moscow, Kiev Philharmonic, International Center of Performing Arts Beijing, Metropolitan Museum

New York, Library of Congress Washington, as well as in Canada, South America, South Africa, Australia and East Asia.

As violinist of the Haydn Trio Eisenstadt Verena Stourzh has presented complete CD-recordings of the piano trios of Haydn, Mozart, Beethoven and Schubert as well as the first complete recording of Haydn's 429 folksong arrangements of Scottish and Welsh folk songs (with Lorna Anderson and Jamie MacDougall).

Franz Ortner very early established his reputation as soloist and member of chamber music ensembles. He is prize winner of the International Brahms Competition 2004 and the „Gradus ad Parnassum“ Cello Competition in 2005. Furthermore he was recipient of a stipend of the Lucerne Festival Academy directed by Pierre Boulez.

2006-2008 Franz Ortner was the principal cellist of the Lisbon Metropolitan Orchestra, 2009-2014 he held the position of first cellist of the Esbjerg Ensemble in Denmark. He is frequently invited to play as principal with the Bournemouth Symphony Orchestra, Orchestre Le Concert Olympique, the Mahler Chamber Orchestra and the Chamber Orchestra of Europe.

As a soloist he has appeared with the Philharmonie Bad Reichenhall, the Kammerorchester Rheinland-Pfalz and the Estonian National Symphony Orchestra.

In 2010 Franz Ortner released a CD with French pianist Caroline Boirot comprising works of Brahms, Fuchs, Kirchner and Schumann, in 2011 he recorded a live-CD featuring Antonín Dvořák's cello concerto.
